Understanding our worship: Confession

In confession, we acknowledge our sin before God. Even when we are in Christ, we still wrestle and war against our sinful flesh (cf., Romans 7:14-25). As Christians, we ought to confess our sins regularly and freely before God that we might find forgiveness and assurance of the forgiveness of our sins.

Responsive Reading for Lord's Supper

1 Corinthians 15:3-7 (ESV)

For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received:
that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures,
that he was buried,
that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures,
and that he appeared to Cephas,
then to the twelve.
Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time,
most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep.
Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles
